

Rubric Made Using:
RubiStar (<http://rubistar.4teachers.org>)

Health Current Event

Teacher Name: Mrs. Larson

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	4	3	2	Jan-00
Article Selection	Article chosen clearly relates to current health topic. It gives information to understand health better. Comes from a	Article somewhat relates to current health topic. May not give strong facts or details. Comes from a news source.	Article has ties to current topic but main information does not relate. Comes from a news source.	Article has no connection to current health topic and/or doesn't come from a news source.
Paragraph #1 Summary	Summary includes information from article told in reader's own words. Highlights main points of article.	Summary includes information from article told in reader's own words. Not all of the main points were summarized.	Summary includes information from article but not told in reader's own words. Missing main points of article.	No summary
Paragraph #2 Application	Paragraph explains how the article applies to class. Also, includes personal connections and/or information learned.	Paragraph explains how the article applies to class.	Paragraph didn't make connection from the article to class but does include personal connections and or information learned.	No summary
Requirements	All requirements present. (Name, Block, Title of article, date, article attached, rubric)	Missing 1. (Name, Block, Title of article, date, article attached, rubric)	Missing 2 (Name, Block, Title of article, date, article attached, rubric)	Missing 3 or more (Name, Block, Title of article, date, article attached, rubric)
Neatness	Current event is typed in correct paragraph form.	Current event is typed and/or handwritten where it is easy to read and in correct paragraph form.	Current event is handwritten and parts are difficult to read and/or no paragraph form.	Current event is illegible.

Date Created: March 04, 2007

Date Last Modified: August 27, 2007